We invite you to attend our U.K. Event!

The International Centre for Complex Project Management (ICCPM), in collaboration with the John Grill Centre for Project Leadership, is delighted to invite you to attend the 2018 Roundtable Series:

Project Leadership: The Game Changer in Large Scale Complex Projects

Attendees to the London event will be drawn from Senior Executives and Heads of business in both private and public sector organisations, individuals from ICCPM's and John Grill Centre's membership and partner base, as well as selected invitees from the APM, Kingsfield Consulting and MPA; bringing together their collective wisdom and to share perspectives on project leadership. At the conclusion of the series, a white paper report will be published providing beneficial insights on the impact of leadership on large scale complex projects.

Date: Tuesday 26th June 2018

Time: 8.30am - 4.30pm

Location: De Vere Beaumont Estate, Burfield Road, Old Windsor, SL4 2JJ

RSVP: 12th June 2018 to admin@iccpm.com or online

The program will include:

- Interactive facilitated working discussions
- Presentations on the latest thinking on leading complex projects
- Opportunity for you to network with leading thinkers of complex projects.

Read our latest discussion paper which outlines a perspective on Leadership for Success in Complex Projects and to identify key questions that will guide the Roundtable discussion.

If you are unable to attend the event personally but would like to send a colleague in your place, please contact us at admin@iccpm.com. Alternatively you can also engage in discussion with your peers via the online discussion forum here.

We look forward to seeing you at our London Roundtable event!
